Policy

In the event of an employment strike, fee subsidy is not automatically available to parents. The Children's Services Manager determines the number of hours of subsidized Child Care, during an employment strike.

Parents must contact the Rainy River District Social Services Administration Board (RRDSSAB) immediately, when they are in a strike situation, so that eligibility for Child Care fee subsidy can be assessed.

In the event of an elementary school board strike, parents already in receipt of fee subsidy will continue to receive subsidy as previously approved. Any changes or extensions are dependent upon available funding and space.
