Preamble

The Rainy River District Social Services Administration Board (RRDSSAB) is committed to Excellence in Governance. Therefore, RRDSSAB determines at what cost its programs and services will be delivered as part of its contribution to long-range planning. "Costs" will include financial, human resource and opportunity costs, i.e. the chance for advancement or progress.

Policy

Costs for each program and service administered by RRDSSAB will be determined as part of its long-range planning.

Administration will consider the costs of each program and service in determining its strategic and/or service/business plan. Costs will be one of the criteria upon which programs and services may be monitored and/or evaluated.
